

Library books must be returned within 21 days from the checkout date. Overdue fines apply after the return deadline at a daily rate set by the library office.

Students can renew books once if there is no pending request from other borrowers. Reference materials cannot be taken outside the library, and all materials must be returned before final examinations.